Megan's Story

Megan has special education needs and disabilities including a genetic disorder called 22Q11 Deletion Syndrome (or Di George Syndrome) and ADHD.

She commenced the Project Choice Internship in September 2019, and completed two placements at the in her local NHS Hospital.

Megan overcame challenges relating to self-confidence and made excellent progress on the Internship, receiving positive feedback from both placements.

In February 2020, she secured a job as a domestic services assistant at ENGIE Soft Services, supporting the NHS during the Covid-19 pandemic.

Liam's Story

Liam attended a specialist ASD school and Sixth Form before starting a Supported Internship with Project Choice in September 2019.

He worked hard and excelled in both of his work placements, and during the year his confidence improved, learning many valuable work and independence skills.

Despite the Covid-19 restrictions and lockdown, Liam continued to receive support from Project Choice staff with applying for jobs, and his hard work paid off: he's now secured paid employment at a food manufacturer in his local city.
