

Specialist Inclusion Team Menu of Support

Whole school support Training, teacher consultations, ECT support, transition support for next class/key stage/setting, modelling strategies and adaptive teaching to support 'quality first teaching' as well as the school's 'core offer'.
SENDCo support Shared observations, learning walks, work scrutiny, supporting the school to review/audit SEND provision, person centred planning and pupil voice work, provision mapping of graduated response, developing effective SEN support plans, data analysis, co-production and partnership working, policy review and supporting SENDCo's.
Pupils (whole class/small group/individual) Screening / baseline assessment, whole class observations and feedback to staff, targeted support using evidence-based interventions, strategies and resources within the 'assess, plan, do and review' cycle.
Supporting parents/carers Drop-in advice session, training session, coffee mornings, modelling strategies and providing resources.
Multi-agency meetings Working collaboratively with other services to meet the needs of pupils.
Referral for advice and support within the 'assess, plan, do, review' cycle Requests for advice for named pupils (class-based strategies). Information gathering (which may include observation, assessment and pupil voice work), meeting with parents/carers, discussion with staff, provision of written advice to support planning, modelling of approaches/resources and attendance at reviews.
Involvement at SEN Support Attendance at reviews and/or requests for further written advice for pupils.
Learning Support Programme (LSP) / Target Setting Provide a tailored programme, resources and guidance to adult/s delivering LSP. Support for school target setting.
Annual reviews Assessment of progress towards Educational Health Care (EHC) objectives, attendance at an Annual Review meeting and provision of a written report if a change of provision is being considered.
Report for EHC panel Summary report to provide information to the EHC Panel.

Please note: This is not an exclusive list of support available from SI Team.